Kids Enjoy Halloween Carnival/Parade

This Halloween went into the books as being a very eventful day in Arnold, with the whole town participating in the fun-filled day. The day started off with the second annual Chamber-sponsored Halloween Parade and Costume Contest at the Arnold Community Center. Children and adults gathered at the community center at 9:00 a.m. to enjoy games of miniature golf, Plinko, Poke a Pumpkin, Bowling, Darts and Balloons, Ping Pong in a Cup, Musical Pumpkins, Pumpkin Sucker Tree, Guess the Quantity and bean bag toss. NHS and NJHS members, along with several adult volunteers, manned the games. Guests entered a decorated community center foyer, equipped with fog and music and greeted by a scary vampire, Nikki Holt.

Judging of the costumes started at 10:00 a.m., as age groups were called and individuals were introduced by emcee Larry Moran. Judges picked three winners in each age group, pictured on page 5 of The Sentinel. The children were then given a ghost bag of popcorn provided by Chamber and orange cotton candy provided by Dell and Chyrel Cerny. Shavonne Schacher took individual photos of each kid in costume and provided one free digital copy, before they went on the parade through the businesses. It is estimated that approximately 100 kids took part in the event.

After Arnold Insurance Agency and Atkins Auction hosted a Business After Hours Party at Nebraska Farmhouse Antiques, with approximately 50 in attendance and dressed in costume.

After much needed naps for many children because of the morning's activities, they then hit the streets for trick-or-treating. Riverview reported having 90 trick-or-treaters and "Trick-or-Treating Avenue" reported having around 100 kids, as the wind picked up and temperatures were rather chilly. To top the day's event, many kids reported seeing a real "Headless Horseman" riding the streets of Arnold during trick-or-treating.

To round out the evening, Cosmic Bowling was also held for adults at the Triangle Lanes and a Costume Contest was held at Keane's Suzy's Pizza.

ents could eat lunch at the community center, provided by Western Riders 4-H Club, and proceeds going to the Arnold Roping Arena Restoration Project. Proceeds totaled over $300.00 according to Holly Hornung-Remund of Western Riders.

Resident Turning 108

Arnold resident Miriam Brower will be turning 108 years old on Tuesday, November 11. Friends and family are hosting an open house for Miriam on the 11th, from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m., at the Nazarene church. Refreshments will be served. You are invited to come and wish one of Nebraska's oldest residents a "Happy Birthday." Let your presence be your gift.

Answering the Challenge

In the weeks leading up to Halloween, Atkins Auction Service and Arnold Insurance Agency issued a challenge to Arnold businesses to dress in costume on Halloween. Most all downtown businesses answered the challenge, including the Pinnacle Bank crew, who went to great lengths to dress as "The Adams Family." Pictured, from left are: Patty Goodnow (Wednesday), Caro Lehmkuhler (Granny), Barb Peterson (Morticia), Larry Moran, (Gomez), and Todd Anderson (Lurch). For our readers' enjoyment, The Sentinel made every effort to take or obtain pictures of all business people dressed in costume. Please turn to page 6 to see more fun photos. (Courtesy photo)
